2 May 1952

Dear Mr. Hawkins:

Your letter, addressed to Professor Greenfield, has just reached us. We regret exceedingly that you are not strong enough to come to the ceremony on the 18th of May. In accordance with your wishes, it will give us pleasure to address an invitation to Dr. and Mrs. Harry A. Sinclair, and we hope that they will be able to attend. We shall make a note of the fact that your niece, Miss Cornelia Andrews, will be present at the ceremony.

With all good wishes,

Respectfully yours,

Bertha L. Lyons (Mrs. N.)
